Whitehall, May 7.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

AT a numerous Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leiceſter, holden at the Caſtle of Leiceſter, on Tueſday the 9th Day of April, 1793, for the Purpoſe of conſidering the Propriety of an Addreſs to His Majeſty on the preſent Poſture of Public Affairs.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leiceſter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the trueſt Sentiments of Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the firmeſt Attachment to the Conſtitution of this Country by Law eſtabliſhed, which at this Time of Public Danger we eſteem it our incumbent Duty to avow.

Your Majeſty's ſtrict Obſervance of a Neutrality with France plainly manifeſted your Majeſty's Unwillingneſs to plunge theſe Kingdoms into a War, till compelled to it by a moſt unprovoked Declaration on the Part of France; but we truſt the Succeſs which has already crowned the Arms of your Majeſty's Allies will ſtill lead to further Victories, and to a ſpeedy and permanent Peace.

Nothing can evince the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils ſo much as the timely Support given to your Majeſty's Allies, and the powerful Armaments prepared for our own internal Security and Protection; and though we moſt ſeriouſly lament the Horrors of War, we cannot help approving of a Meaſure, which the atrocious Conduct of our Enemies hath rendered abſolutely neceſſary.

[Preſented by Mr. Porchin and Mr. Curzon.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, conſider it as our Duty, in the preſent intereſting State of Affairs, to approach your Throne, in order to aſſure your Majeſty that our Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and the Zeal of that great Body of People under our Care for the Conſtitution of Great Britain, continue firm and unſhaken.

Senſible of our Felicity under the Reign of a Sovereign who has been the faithful Guardian of our Laws, it is with deep Regret we have learned that Principles have ariſen in the Minds of ſome, inimical to our happy Conſtitution.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the remarkable Succeſs which, under Providence, has attended the Arms of your Allies; and we truſt that your your Majesty's Councils will be conducted with Wisdom, that your Forces by Sea and Land will continue to act with Valour, and that Peace will soon be happily re-established.

We regard it as our immediate Duty to increase our Diligence in discharging the Functions of our sacred Office, and will use our best Endeavours to confirm the People under our Care in Sentiments of Loyalty to their Sovereign and of Attachment to the Constitution, and, in Subserviency to your Majesty's pious Intention in your late Appointment of a General Fast, we will study to impress upon the Minds of those committed to our Charge a just Sense of their many Sins, and to invite them to such a Reformation of their Hearts and Lives as may avert the deserved Judgements of Almighty God.

That the Lord of Hosts, in whose Hands is Power and Might, may go forth with the Fleets and Armies of our Country: That He who stilleth the Tumults of the People, and ruleth the Spirits of Men, may instil the Love of Peace, good Order and Religion into the Hearts of our Enemies: That the Teachers of Truth and Virtue in this Country may long rejoice under the Government of your Majesty, as their gracious Benefactor, are the daily and fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment by John Brown, Moderator.

Stirling, April 17, 1793.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Tiviotdale, met at Kelso on the 24th Day of April, 1793 Years.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Tiviotdale, beg Leave on this Occasion, in the most dutiful Manner, to approach the Throne, to express our unfeigned Affection to your Majesty and your Royal Family, our unshaken Attachment to the wise and equitable Constitution of Great Britain, in King, Lords and Commons, and the grateful Sense we have of the manifold Blessings which we ourselves, and all Ranks in these Kingdoms, do at present securely enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and which we and our Fathers have enjoyed under your Royal Ancestors, who, in the Goodness of Almighty God, were brought to reign over us.

We think it our Duty to profess our Abhorrence of those seditious Writings which have been published and officiously dispersed, with an Intention to subvert Religion, to overthrow all good Order and Government, and introduce Anarchy and Confusion, instead of the inestimable Constitution of Great Britain, which has been long admired by the Nations of Europe.

We are happy at the same Time to remember that the early Interposition of your Majesty and your Ministers first awakened the Attention of the Nation to the Danger threatened by those insidious Practices, and that the Weight which the uniform Authority of Parliament, added to the Measures suggested by the Ministry, gave the first open Check to those treasonable Attempts; while the general and warm Declarations made by Counties, great Cities, and Corporations, in Britain, expressing their steady and uniform Attachment to our happy Constitution, their Resolutions to support the Magistrates in the Execution of their Office in suppressing all such treasonable Writings, and their Endeavours to bring the Authors and Publishers of them to condign Punishment, have effectually restrained their further Progress.

We have Reason to believe, that the Care and Pains which have been employed by well-affected Subjects in circulating useful and convincing Replies to those Writings, have had a considerable Effect in obviating their baneful Tendency; and we are happy in being able to affirm, that there is no Appearance of Sedition in this Province.

We trust, by the Grace of Almighty God, it shall be our continued Endeavour to impress the Minds of the People under our Care with a just Sense of the Principles and Duties of our holy Religion, the Value of our equitable and good Government, and the strict Obligations we are all under to yield chearful Obedience to the Laws.

And we pray that Almighty God, in great Mercy to the People of these Realms, may long preserve your Majesty to reign over us as a free and affectionate People; and that the War, in which we are necessarily engaged, may, by the Blessing of God upon our Arms by Sea and Land, soon be brought to a happy and honourable Issue; that so Peace may be restored, our Commerce and Prosperity continued, and our most excellent Constitution in Church and State transmitted to latest Posterity pure and inviolate, on the Principles established at the glorious Revolution.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by David Brown, Moderator.
